EVERY DOLLAR COUNTS

They're ready to learn and know books are still important, but the collection of nonfiction books at their school library is very outdated. How can we instill the love of reading and help them succeed when their resources are obsolete?

Clark County READS can help them. Our literacy initiative provides books to school libraries, classrooms, students and families and trains volunteer reading partners who work with struggling readers.

She's determined to go to college. A good student with two after-school jobs, she's searching for scholarships to secure her future. Who can give her the lasting gift of education?

Our Scholarship Program enables local students to access colleges, universities and other post-secondary programs that many of them may not otherwise be able to afford.

He's a committed teacher, but he's struggling to find classroom supplies during these difficult economic times. Budgets have been cut, and he can't afford to buy any more school supplies on his own. Where can he find help now?

He can turn to the Teacher EXCHANGE™. Our re-use resource center collects supplies, materials and equipment from the community and provides the items to teachers for classroom use.

EDUCATION MATTERS

Today, more than half of Clark County School District's 310,000 students are eligible for free or reduced price lunch. More than $385 million has been cut from our schools' budgets in recent years and more cuts are on the horizon. The needs are great. Our children's path forward to a brighter tomorrow starts with you.

Now more than ever, the Foundation needs your support to help us sustain our essential programs and support areas of greatest need.

WHERE YOU MAKE THE DIFFERENCE

Because we work together with you and the entire community, the Foundation has successfully:

Distributed more than 972,000 books and trained more than 1,750 reading partner volunteers

Placed more than 80,000 new nonfiction books in almost 100 public school libraries

Awarded 2,400 college scholarships totaling almost $6 million to Clark County high school seniors

Delivered resources back into the classroom by collecting and recycling more than 500 tons of supplies, materials and equipment from the community - these reusable materials are provided to teachers for use in their classrooms, saving each teacher about $1,600 of his or her own money each year

And so much more.

WHO WE ARE

Created in 1991, The Public Education Foundation is dedicated to improving public education in Southern Nevada. We focus on implementing effective instruction, testing promising ideas and developing best practices in Southern Nevada's public schools through a portfolio of innovative initiatives and programs targeting various aspects of teaching and learning.

The Foundation's strategic use of educationally relevant community resources and public-private partnerships is designed to improve student performance, advance quality educational opportunities for all children and deliver measurable results.

Because of you, the Foundation has worked tirelessly for almost 20 years to mobilize community resources to improve our public schools and prepare students to be successful in life.

YOUR SUPPORT COUNTS

In today's tough economic times, your support counts more than ever. Your gift, regardless of size, will make a measurable difference in our public classrooms.

Thanks to generous people like you, we are helping children succeed and providing assistance to teachers.

Your donation is secure. The Foundation ensures accountability and transparency through benchmarking, reporting and rigorous auditing procedures. When you select the program that most interests you, 100% of your donation goes directly to that endeavor.
